Marist Catholic High School
Return to School Update
September 4, 2020

Dear Marist Families,

I hope that this week's update finds you all doing well and that students are ready to return to school. Based on the state and county metrics that came out on Tuesday, the earliest students could return to campus in a hybrid learning model is September 28. We are in the process of fine tuning our complete Return to School plan which will include the Remote Learning Schedule and other important information as students prepare to return to campus for in person instruction.

Teachers returned to campus this week and have been busy preparing for classes. They participated in professional development sessions that focused on refining their skills for remote teaching, teaching in a hybrid model, and how to build community and relationship in a virtual classroom. Teachers will participate in ongoing professional development in these areas and others throughout the year.

First Week of School - September 8-11th

A few reminders

September 8:

Freshman Orientation Part 1: 9:00 - 11:00 a.m. on campus (Marist merchandise will be available for purchase)
