

DESCRIPTION

Marist Catholic High School, an archdiocesan co-educational high school located in Eugene, is seeking a full time High School Spanish Teacher for the 2025-2026 academic school year (1 FTE). The ideal candidate is a dynamic, passionate, and well-versed educator with experience in diverse classrooms. Candidates should be team players, able to collaborate easily with colleagues and passionate about teaching and their field of discipline. Strong organizational and class management skills are needed as well as the ability to communicate regularly and effectively with all stakeholders including parents, other colleagues, administration, and students. The successful candidate must demonstrate up-to-date knowledge of their content area and be able to engage students using a wide variety of teaching strategies, updating their digital gradebook weekly, developing 21st century skills, and educating the whole child, mind and spirit. Candidate must be highly skilled at planning, organizing, and developing curriculum to reach the needs of all learners. Candidate will also effectively collaborate with colleagues to integrate department goals as well as the school mission.
